

The WiseFish subscription plan - a simple and economic solution

Designed with flexibility and customization in mind, WiseFish is the ideal solution for seafood companies that want their ERP system to conform to their conditions and terms. When you choose the WiseFish subscription plan, you get to choose whether to install the software on-site or have it hosted.

Monthly fees for software, updates and service access.

The WiseFish subscription plan provides customers with the flexibility that comes with adjusting the number of users per month, and thus keeping cost down.

When the WiseFish subscription plan is set up, you receive a special edition of the Wise Analyzer, the powerful analyzing tool for the seafood industry.
